

You Needn't Be a Millionaire

Dressing well doesn't necessarily imply spending more than you can afford.

Of course you can pay a lot for clothes if you want to, but why pay for more value than you actually get?

We've always made it a point to put in the things that are highest in quality and most reasonable in price.

In men's clothes, for example. What better can be had than Clothcraft at $10 to $20 and Hart Schaffner & Marx $20 to $30

It's the same all the way down the line. Shirts, hats, socks, collars, underwear--every thing you buy here is bound to please because you feel that it is worth every cent you pay for it.

Our new Spring styles are awaiting your approval.

THE CLOTHCRAFT STORE IN THIS TOWN

OUR NEIGHBOR BRODHEAD

By "J. M."

Brodhead, 50 years ago (1867). There was at any such place on the Kentucky map; tho there was one log house on a spot some four hundred yards north west of where the depot now stands in that live town, occupied by Dick Woolyard. The writer drove thru, over the Wilderness road, from Mt. Vernon to Crab Orchard in the above year. The railroad was being graded at that time. Boone's fork church was flourishing then, it was located about one third of a mile from Dick's river on the Wilderness road toward Mt. Vernon. Later the congregation moved to Brodhead and the old two story, historic, building was dismantled and was no more. The writer suggests that a memorial marker be erected at the spot showing the location of this famous old church.

Just 50 years after his first trip over this route, in a buggy, the writer took a spin, in the Signal Editor's Ford, over the Boone Way, from Mt. Vernon to Brodhead the station which received its name from a contractor who was engaged in the construction of the railroad. While it is known the highway is not yet macadamised, a well graded roadbed is found between the above points, having splendid concrete bridges and culverts.

E. O. Faris was the first railroad agent at Brodhead. He later ly died at Silver Creek where he had been agent nearly 40 years.

Larkin Hicks, the oldest citizen of Brodhead came to that place in 1874. No other citizen is living there today who was there in that year, with the exception of our good friend Jeremiah G. Frith who located there near about that time and has grown up with the town. James W. Tate arrived on the grounds in May 1877 from Garrard county and has been one of the town fixtures since that time in its up-building.

David Hurt, one of the writer's boyhood companions and playmates came to Brodhead in 1875 and was section foreman for the larger number of those years. This splendid man and citizen died on 21st of January last, tho the writer did not learn of it until his trip to Brodhead last Monday. It was indeed a shock to hear of his taking off.

At the post office we found Danie Owens holding the mails assisted by Miss Recca Brooks. Danie was a little disturbed over the loss of his American flag. Said he thought some German sympathizer had hogged it. J. R. Cass was found at depot. By the way that depot is not exceeded in plans and convenient arrangements by any station on the L. & N., city or communities. Since the new depot and platform was erected it seems that business has drifted mostly to west side of track and along Boone Way street.

R. H. Hamm who did business for years next door to Frith Hotel is one of the movers to west side. He is splendidly located in a new building just opposite Citizens bank and is catching his part of the trade. The editor and "J. M." are indebted to "Teed" for presents in the way of an American flag button, each.

Brodhead's drug store, J. F. Watson, proprietor is now located in the Jim Albright store house building on east side of track.

Shafer & Roberts occupy the Dick Martin storehouse at the end of the bridge. They carry a line of general merchandise.

W. H. Sowder's store is first on west side of track, on Boone Way. Will is just as clever and friendly as ever.

A. E. Albright's store is just across the street, where Ed can be found by his numerous friends and customers at nearly all hours dishing out the goods.

Next door is the business house of the late J. M. Adams. The store is being continued by his widow, W. J. Owens, chief clerk "Chuck Frith," sometimes known as "C. H." and at others as the "oil king" is an egg and produce buyer. Old hams, just lots of them, were hanging from the ceiling of his warehouse. We failed to persuade him to allow us to remain with the hams while he went to depot to do some billing. Maybe he had a "suspicion." Some people are that way you know. Queer.

Owen Cass does second truck work and Charlie Hurt third at depot. They are both splendid and accomodating business boys.

Next up the street from "Chucks" stand is the Citizens Bank, presided over by that sterling cashier A. M. Hiatt with Miss Miranda Tate assistant. Brodhead and surrounding territory's people are mighty proud of their bank and its management.

W. E. Gravely's general merchandise establishment is found one door west of the bank. This establishment evidently gets its share of the patronage.

Wallin's barber shop is one door east of post office, next to railroad. This is a clean sanitary shop and gets a fine run of custom which it deserves.

The store nearest Crab Orchard is that of John Rovins, the efficient and faithful Signal reporter. It is located on the lot where the old Cherry storehouse burned some time ago. Mr. Robins has a nice clean stock of general merchandise and his host of friends are giving him a deserved patronage.

Mrs. D. B. Albright has charge of the Frith Hotel and is conducting a splendid hostelry.

Mrs. J. M. Clark is still running the lunch house which she has so successfully conducted for a number of years.

J. T. Lawrence is preparing to open up a store one door west of R. H. Hamm's place of business.

Hamp Reynolds and Candy Jim Owens are the blacksmiths and they usually keep their anvils ringing (whether work is going on or not).

Walter Smith is the garage man and does the business.

B. T. Young is conducting a successful produce house on West Boone Way.

The Rockcastle Milling Co., under the charge of our good old friend John Riddle assisted by other Riddles, is doing a nice business and deserve to do so, they are mighty good people.

Brodhead is the home of Tony Brooks (who is usually in charge of a floating gang on railroad). Tony is one of the counties best men.

Brodhead has the credit of establishing the first graded school in Rockcastle. The fact is that she is always in the forefront in establishing and pushing enterprises for the general good.

The friendly rivalry existing between Brodhead and the county seat, in business and other affairs is pitched on a different plane to what it was a few years since. There was a time when jealousies and bickerings were indulged in between some of the boys of the two places, but happily they learned that such things "never got them anywhere," they changed front and use that which is more popular and profitable reciprocity," and find it a greater asset than following the old line of procedure.

Brodhead and its citizens are a live pushing, patriotic and progressive people.

ROCKCASTLE PATRIOTIC LEAGUE

Chairman C. C. Williams of Magisterial district No. 2 (West Mt. Vernon) held a meeting at Cove school house and organized the workers County Chairman Dr. M. Pennington and secretary were on hands. The following District executive Committee were elected Louis McGuire, W. C. Johnson, Jesse Fish, G. C. Fish, and S. P. Caudle. There were more than a hundred interested people present all of whom promised to work enthusiastically in the farming cause. The next meeting will be held at Langford school house on Monday night May 8th, 7:30. Wildie Tuesday night, Conway, Wednesday night, and Maple Grove, Thursday night of same week. Everybody invited and requested to come.

District Chairmen are requested to hold meetings in various portions of their territory during the coming and following weeks. This is highly important before it is too late to get out full and bigger crops.

There is great interest in the Patriotic League movement throughout the county.

Rockcastle was among the first to start county and district organizations along this line.

All farmers, in fact everyone in our county should take a personal interest in this the most important question now before the country. It is war times and no one can predict what is before us, probably actual hunger if everyone doesn't do his full duty in working and to waste nothing.

Rockcastle should raise enough to supply her own needs or she may possibly suffer for the reason that the great demand for soldiers may cause such a scarcity that prices may become prohibitive, followed by such times as we have never experienced before.

Talk to your neighbor seriously on this crop subject and have him pass the word on so we may avert disaster and hunger.

Every citizen should consider himself a committee of one to push this movement.

County Chairman Dr. M. Pennington has designated every citizen, men, boys, women and girls of our county a member of the Rockcastle Patriotic League and hopes and requests each and every one will be working members.

DON'T LET YOUR COUGH HANG ON

Children and grown-ups alike find Dr. King's New Discovery pleasant to take as well as effective. Have a bottle handy in your medicine chest for gripe, croup and all bronchial affections. ROCKCASTLE PATRIOTIC LEAGUE

To the end that our county should do its bit during these perilous times an organization of our people is being made, to be known as the Rockcastle Patriotic League. Its object being to get everyone interested in the question of putting in and cultivating larger crops and gardens, the raising of live stock and poultry, and the practice of economy in all food products and everything pertaining to the sustenance of life and its comforts. To work, preserve and SAVE as has never been practiced before.

After the Patriotic meeting held at Mt. Vernon on 23rd April a Central Executive Committee was named for the purpose of organizing two branches of Leagues in each Magisterial district within the county with Dr. M. Pennington, Chairman, Dr. A. G. Lovell vice chairman and James Marlet, secretary, R. F. Spence, (of Berea) Field Agent.

Organizations have been made at Livingston, Disputanta, Conway, Orlanda, Cove, Brodhead and other points and it is desired to get all the districts fully organized by middle of next week and to push the good work along.

This is one of the most important moves started in our county since the talk of war began. County Agent Spence, who will act in connection with his government work, as field agent for our League and will prove a most valuable acquisition to the ranks. He has been working in the harness along these lines, in a portion of this county for past three years and what he has accomplished in the work is a big surprise to everyone learning of what has been done by this untiring representative of Uncle Sam.

In organizing branches of the league each district or division will have a chairman and five executive Committeemen, so arranged as to cover the various portions of their district. The duty of these, and all other members is to preach agriculture and do a good part of the work themselves. Consult with your preacher, have him mention this work in his sermons and talk to the people, visit neighbors encourage them to increase their crops and refuse to sell any brood sows, mares or ewes to go out of the county.

The county agent will spend two thirds of his time in this county aiding and assisting in this great work. As soon as the five magisterial districts have been organized a meeting will be held at Mt. Vernon in which the chairman and five members of executive committee of each district are expected to be present for consultation. Information and advice will be given to them as to best manner of procedure in the work.

It is suggested that later these clubs become permanent, after the manner of community clubs like those at Conway, Cove, Orlanda, Disputanta etc., which have accomplished great good in ways of better cultivation, introduction of better grades of stock and poultry, fertilization etc. Interesting articles on the value of community clubs and what has been done by them in Rockcastle will appear in the Signal often in the future.

A branch of the League was organized at Disputanta last Wednesday with Hardin Moore as chairman and the executive committee as follows: W. M. Burnett, Jones Durham, R. L. Payne, Richard Moore, H. M. Mink and Tom Mullins.

Brodhead held its meeting on Saturday afternoon last and placed A. M. Hiatt as chairman and named the executive committee, Oscar Hamm, Guy Roberts, J. W. Moore, U. C. Metcalf, Logan Hasty, Sam Chandler.

It is expected that each committee will call meetings at his nearest school house and get in touch with all the farmers, encouraging them to push things with a vim this season.

Executive Committeemen will receive due notice of date of proposed meeting at Mt. Vernon.

Farmers desiring bulletins on subject of corn, wheat, rye, oats, gardens, live stock etc, should address County Agent, Berea, Ky. These will be gladly furnished free of charge.

PROPER FOOD FOR WEAK STOMACHS.

The proper food for one man may be all wrong for another. Every one should adopt a diet suited to his age and occupation. Those who have weak stomachs need to be especially careful and should eat slowly and masticate their food thoroughly. It is also important that they keep their bowels regular. When they become constipated or when they feel dull and stupid after eating, they should take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the stomach and move the bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

THE London Times published a few days ago the story that the German dead are stripped, bound in bundles of four, with iron wire hauled to waiting railroad trains and shipped to a reducing plant, where the fat and oils are recovered for chemical uses, including the making of explosives the bones are ground for fertilizer and pig feed. To many persons the tale was incredible; a mere column of horror to entertain the idle reader or vent British spleen against the Germans. The Times now comes forward with a more detailed story of the intensive treatment of the German soldier, to the end that the Empire may profit by using him after he is killed as well as while he is alive. In substantiation German papers are quoted, and the story as it now appears seems as well authenticated as any chronicle of alleged facts could be.—Courier Journal.

THE Texas Coaster, of Richmond, Texas, exonerates and justifies the Kentucky editor who received the following communication, for having sworn a few swears to relieve the tension: "Dear Editor: Please send me a few copies of the paper containing the obituary of my aunt. I do so publish the enclosed clippings of the marriage of my niece, who lives in Lebanon. And I wish you would mention in your local column, if it does not cost anything, that I have two bull calves for sale. As my subscription is out please stop my paper. Times are too bad to waste money on newspapers."—Campbellsville (Ky.) News-Journal.

THERE are a good many people who would generously offer to run gardens if seed and garden tools were furnished, the land plowed and spaded, the weeds kept out and the crops harvested for them.

ONE of the Berlin papers insists America's entrance into the war will hasten peace, and for once a German paper is correct though the reasons given may be faulty.

PREACHERS and Sunday school teachers can be of great service in patriotic League work.

President Fairfax Harrison, of the Southern Railway system, chairman of the American Railway Association special Committee of National Defense, has instructed B. H. Todd, of the Louisville office, to make known to all citizens the danger of trespassing upon railway property.

"Trespassing upon railway property is at all times a perilous practice, but it involves an even greater hazard for the trespasser now," President Harrison said. "It has become necessary to place armed guards at strategic points to prevent possible interference with the country's transportation facilities through the depredations of enemy agents, and the man who subjects himself to the peril of being shot. Guards cannot afford to take any chances. Unfortunate occurrences can be avoided if citizens who have no business on railway property will keep off. It is especially important that pedestrians who have been accustomed to walking the tracks rather than the public highways should recognize the added danger and understand that a man performs a patriotic service by avoiding it."

SOME of our patriots are perfectly willing to wave flags and urge young men to enlist, but when it comes to digging in the dirt raising potatoes, that is another proposition.

BERLIN denies the English forces have made any gains, but Berlin's denial experts have in the past shown more efficiency than capacity for truthfulness.

ONE farmer, in Woodford county will plant 250 acres in corn. He is plowing his ground with a tractor, running night and day.

The great importance of saving is being forcibly impressed upon our people by the continued increased high cost of living.

A woman can never understand how it is possible for a smart man like her husband to get the short end of it in a law suit.

WHEN women are paid wages that will enable them to support husbands in luxury the millenium will be at hand.

FARM boys are quickest to join the army, say recruiting men. But most of the patriotic noise comes from the cities.

ONE seldom sees a woman on the street without a shopping bag. That might be sufficient warning to bachelors.

WHEN a woman says her husband is perfection it is a safe bet that she hasn't been married three weeks.

Nobody can tell what a baby's going to be till it gets whiskers. Some of them are enigmas even then.

Do your trading with home merchants.

NOTES.

The following notes of the Mt. Vernon Patriotic Meeting held last Monday week were crowded out of last issue for the want of space.

It was a great day, long to be remembered.

Every speaker was roundly cheered.

The little marchers of the kindergarten size was a touching demonstration.

Miss Stewart's girls of the Memorial school marched like veterans and sang pleasingly and with patriotic fervor.

W. J. Sparks was a warm and enthusiastic chairman.

One and possibly two, branches of Patriotic Leagues will be organized in each Magisterial district in the county.

A. M. Hatt Brodhead will be chairman of Brodhead League when organized.

G. S. Griffin will be chairman of the Livingston branch.

Mr. Spence suggested that the farmers time is too precious to waste upon those running for office and that when a candidate called upon them in the fields, to hand them a hoe and say, "follow me" and just keep moving. The candidate, he says, should show his faith and friendship by his works. If this rule is adhered to it will cause the destruction of tons of weeds before August 4th, the date of the primary election.

The parody on some of the war songs sung by Vic Tate's gang of songsters was a great hit and called out much applause. These parodies were perpetrated by that versatile Vick who is ever ready with the good in any enterprise for the good of his country including schools, churches and patriotism.

The pupils of the graded school, under marching orders and management of Prof. Lyons and his able corps of teachers went through the exercises with flying colors, adding greatly to the enjoyment to the occasion.

All the speakers did full justice to their subjects.

Never was a better conducted affair took place in our town.

A number have foresworn the use of intoxicants during the war. Now don't, for goodness sake, any of you harbor a suspicion that any of these good citizens hope for an early ending of hostilities. It wouldn't be fair.

It is the intention for all the county clubs to work together and thru the Central Club at Mt. Vernon.

County Agent Spence is proving a valuable asset to the counties to which the government has assigned him.

Farmers desiring information on any farm or stock problem should see or address L. F. Spence, county agent Berea. No cost to you.

A Patriotic League was organized at a meeting at Disputanta Tuesday night County agent Spence assisted in the work.

One of the speakers dwelt upon the importance of saving everything. Waste nothing, a biscuit or an ounce of meat should not be thrown into the slop tub. Time, money and all commodities should be conserved.

Bowel regularity is the secret of good health, bright eyes, clear complexion, and Dr. King's New Life Pills are a mild and gentle laxative that regulates the bowels and relieves the congested intestines by removing the accumulated wastes without griping. GO-TO-SUNDAY-SCHOOL DAY

On the first Sunday in May last year, we had a million people in the Sunday schools of the state. We should go far beyond the million next Sunday. Kentucky is teaching this big idea to the other states and she can teach it best by doing it better each year. This old Commonwealth should have one million, two hundred and fifty thousand sons and daughters in Sunday school on the sixth of May. Rockcastle should have some people in Sunday school that have never been there before; some of these people will come again, and if you take them, that day's work will have a living monument. If you are loyal to the state that gives you a home and want to see her a better state go to some Sunday school and take some one with you.

The Woman's Tonic

You can rely on Cardui. Surely it will do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women! It should help. "I was taken sick, seemed to be..." writes Mrs. Mary E. Veste, of Madison Heights, Va. "I got down so weak, could hardly walk... just staggered around. I read of Cardui, and after taking one bottle, or before taking quite all, I felt much better. I took 3 or 4 bottles at that time, and was able to do my work. I take it in the spring when run-down. I had no appetite, and I commenced eating. It is the best tonic I ever saw." Try Cardui.

WANTED - 50 Rock Men for Sparks Quarry, wages $2.00 per day and up. Report W. J. Sparks Co's Mt. Vernon office, before May 15, 1917.

Oil excitement is running high at Bartonsville. A 50 barrel well was struck on the property of Judge Samson in the city limits of that bustling town. This is the biggest strike ever made in Knox county, altho some have developed to be larger after pumping awhile.

With this issue we return to our old size 7 columns. A six column paper is too small to handle the county news and experience of the past few weeks has taught us that the people want county news in a county paper instead of a lot of old stale outside news, which the country weekly gets, when the inside part is used.

Oil experts, on the ground here pronounce the oil in W. M. Poynter's well, in Mt. Vernon, as being a good quality of "Ragland" oil. They sent away samples, during the week for analysis. The well was drilled sometime since, in Mr. Poynter's yard, for water, and its only 50 feet in depth, but the water was so strongly impregnated with oil it was found unfit for use; the well was abandoned and another drilled some fifty feet to one side.

The injunction against Gauley Mountain route for Dixie highway was argued before Judge Bethurum Wednesday night. Bethurum & Lewis represented Livingston and Atty. C. C. Among one of the first clocks turned out by Seth Thomas is in the possession of Paul Griffin of this place. It is a mantle clock and its turniture is of antique design. The old timer was the property of Mr. Griffin's grandfather. It is yet ticking away time and keeps it accurately as it did more than 100 years ago. Mrs. Griffin's grandfather's clock is also in their house and a third old timer is kept running along with the others. With the three clocks and two watches on the place Mr. Griffin is kept busy in the daily windings thereof.

One of the saddest homes in the county is that of Mrs. Bettie Wood at Conway. About two weeks ago her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Duncan died. Last Sunday the 6 months old Duncan baby died and the very next night J. H. Duncan. Mrs. Duncan had been suffering from tuberculosis for a long while and the little one was too weak to live longer. Mr. Duncan had been in a hospital in Cleveland, Ohio for 4 months or more and had only been out one day when his wife died. He was found dead in bed Monday morning and it was thought that his weakened condition was not strong enough to stand the terrible shock. All these deaths occurred at the home of Mrs. Wood, and all within ten days.

GOOD The Louisville business houses whose managers usually make trade excursions by special train, nearly every year, over the state at a cost of several thousand dollars, have canceled their trip for 1917, and are making up a fund of $10,000 to build one mile of the six over Pine Mountain in Harlan county to make connection with Pine Mountain Settlement school, which is located in a valley but off from the world by a mountain range over 100 miles in length. This school was started by W. M. Creach, an old mountaineer, with no education, but who saw the great need of his people. Miss Cathcart, one of the wide awake teachers in the school, has been working on this road proposition, by canvassing portions of three states, during past year. The six miles will cost $60,000; the state will pay half. Construction will soon be under way. Louisville, with her Board of Trade, Automobile Clubs and business houses have heeded the cry and plea from the wilderness and are coming to the rescue. It has been suggested that the road be named the Louisville and Pine Mountain Highway. The people of Pine Mountain Settlement valley are to be congratulated over the successful efforts of Miss Cathcart and "Uncle" Billy Creach Louisville, a city that never goes back on the mountains, is, by this latest move further demonstrates the truth of the statement made two years ago, by the president of "Boone Way," that Louisville never fails to join heartily in any movement to advance the interest of the citizens of the Cumberlands ("J. M.")

Girls' Canning Club

The enrollment in the Girl's Canning Club is growing constantly. To date we have ninety girls enrolled, all very enthusiastic workers and ambitious to push this work. They hope to preserve enough fruits and vegetables to feed Rockcastle county, and if this is a favorable year the girls will have some high grade products for market. The canning club girls' products are the "4 H Brand" (meaning head, heart, health and hand), and their motto "make better of the best." With such a motto the products are the best. All the goods the girls produced for market, last year were sold to the merchants in the county and they were well pleased, to the extent that there was such a demand for canning club products, it was impossible to supply them. Now, as the merchants at home stood by us last year when we were getting ourselves established, we are going to sell everything to them this year and at a reasonable price. We will have the products this year and will be willing and glad to furnish our home markets with the nicest and freshest goods we can produce.

We want the people to feel this is their work as we can't get on without support and encouragement, and please observe the girls' canning clubs along through the season.

The Home Demonstration and Girls' Club canning work will surely succeed when "90" patriotic girls and two-thirds as many women, enlist as food producers and preservers.

R. N. Wathen, proprietor of the Lebanon Liquor Co., fined $300 for illegal shipment of whiskey into the county. John P. Dant, a Louisville whiskey dealer caught it for $100 on the same charge. James Proctor forfeited bond $100; W. J. Brown forfeited bond on Ben Thompson. $50; Martha Barrett, the woman who threw her baby from a L & N train while running was given 2 years in the pen. As she is only 15 years old the Judge sent her to the school of Reform instead of the penitentiary. The woman tells a very pathetic story of her life, which together with the fact she plead guilty, is the reason she got such a light sentence for the horrible act committed. She was taken to Glendale by deputy sheriff Wade Levisay yesterday.

The woman was captured at Artemus, in Knox County, this state and brought here by Deputy Sheriff Jack Abney and Dave Clark of the Orlando section. These men went to work on the case as the baby was found and had the woman in custody in about 24 hours after she committed the deed. Jack and Dave proved themselves to be fine detectives.

The following divorces were granted: Mary Hellard vs. Robert Helard; Ella Vaughn vs. Jas. Vaughn; Jas. Oliver vs. Pearl Oliver; Casper Berry vs. Bessie Berry. The court gave peremptory instruction in the case of Sylvia Allen against L. & N. R. R. Co. The plaintiff claimed that her house was burned by sparks from a locomotive. The jury gave judgment for $5000 in case of Charlie Baker, admr of Eugene Baker, vs. L. & N. R. R. Co. Baker was killed by a train at Ford in Dec, 1914.

A PREACHER'S LIFE.

A preacher has a hard time. If his hair is gray, he is old. If he is a young man, he hasn't had experience. If he has ten children, he has too many. If he has none, he should have, and isn't setting a good example. If his wife sings in the choir, she is presuming. If she doesn't she isn't interested in her husband's work. If a preacher reads from notes, he's a bore. If he speaks extemporaneously, he isn't quite deep enough. If he stays at home in his study, he doesn't mix with the people. If he is seen around on the streets, he ought to be at home getting up a good sermon. If he calls on a very poor family, he is playing to the grand stand. If he calls at the home of the rich he is an aristocrat. Whatever he does someone could have told him how to do it better. He has a fine time living off donations which never come in, and promises that never mature. Next to being a country editor, it is an awful life—Ex.

OWENS LATEST. It is said there has been a rivalry existing between the Owens and Mullins families, in deeds of valor, since 1833 when the "stars fell" so plentifully; at the time Alfred Owens pointed to the moon and warned his friends to "Keep your eyes on the main fagelment, if she starts, to hell we are all gone in a hand basket." Will Owens, the Livingston Signal reporter, upon reading in last week's issue of the activities of H. J. Mullins' climbing hog, told the following: "My father once turned a sow and pigs into the woods. A cow bell was strapped to the sow's neck, so she could be located when wanted. About three months later a neighbor traded for the animals. I was sent out to find them. The sound of the bell led me from the woods to the edge of a corn field. On approaching the place I discovered a huge snake, as big as a python, with the cow bell around its neck, inside the field throwing ears of corn over the fence to the pigs, which had grown to good sized shoats. It was discovered that the snake had swallowed the sow, except the bell, the strap passing over the reptile's head and became secured around its neck. The pigs had learned to follow the bell and continued to do so after their mother had been disposed of by their swallow route. It appears that the snake and the young porkers had become much attached and the reptile did foraging in neighboring corn patches and fruit trees for the benefit of its newly acquired family. It was learned afterward that the snake had escaped from John Robinson's circus and took to the woods."

There were no registered distilleries in those days. Drinkables were tax free and cheap.

This remedy is also good for colic and croup.
